

Waxahachie Chautauqua

Celebrates Public Spaces! Saturday, September 30

9am - 5pm • FREE

Historic Chautauqua Auditorium & surrounding Getzendaner Park, 400 South Grand Ave.,
Waxahachie. Just 30 miles south of downtown Dallas!

	AUDITORIUM	PROGRAM TENT
9:00	"All Are Welcome Here" Old-Fashioned Singers
9:30	Opening Ceremonies
10:00	Keynote: 9/11 Memorial: A Place of Remembrance
11:00	Chautauqua's Gathering Places Across America	Better Block: Reimagining City Spaces
12:00	Soaring With the Birds of Prey	Inspiring Public Landscapes
1:00	Renaissance Spaces: Singing, Dancing & Jousting	William Sidney Pittman: First Black Architect in Texas
2:00	Art in the Open	Transforming Waxahachie Through Public Spaces
3:00	Thomas Jefferson: Inter-weaving Democracy & Architecture
4:00	Mexico 2000 Ballet Folklorico

"Celebrating Public Spaces" through the perspectives of history, science, city planning, art, music, and so much more!

Details at www.WaxahachieChautauqua.org/events

An annual, free, day-long cultural and educational event of speakers, programs, demonstrations, music, and exhibits. This event is reminiscent of the old Chautauqua held in Waxahachie 1900-1930.